WAR PICTURES ON VIEW

French Official Artist to Meet Guests at Private Exhibit.

One of the most interesting events of this afternoon will take place at Octagon House, New York avenue and Eighteenth street, when there will be a private view of the pictures of Charles Duvent, the French official war painter. The artist will be present to meet the guests, and the French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand are among those who will attend.

A public exhibition of the pictures will open tomorrow, and will continue for two weeks. The hours will be from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Wounded Early in War.
The pictures are water color paintings of the battlefields and of incidents of the American war relief work as the artist saw them in Belgium, Artois, Champagne, Alsace, and in Morocco.

Monsieur Duvent, who, at the age of fifteen, had a picture in the French salon and at twenty-four won the "Prix de Rome," was wounded early in the war and was sent back to the front, commissioned by the French ministry of foreign affairs to paint France destroyed.

Worked Under Shell Fire.
This collection is the result of nearly two years' work under shell fire. It is for sale as a whole at the price of $20,000. Mr. Holmes, the well-known American artist, hung the collection. The pictures had enormous success in New York, and are to be shown in the principal cities of the United States. In Washington the exhibition is for the benefit of the work of the surgical dressings committee, and 50 cents admission will be charged.

The committee in charge of the exhibition consists of Mr. Archibald Hopkins, Miss Martha Codman, Miss Davis, Miss Mary Sheridan, Miss Farrar Smith, Mrs. Stephen Bonal, Mrs. Mathewson, Mrs. Fred Brook, and Mrs. Arthur Willard.

Mardi Gras Ball Plans.

At a meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Alfred H. Plant, of the committee on arrangements for the third annual Mardi Gras ball, to be given at the Raleigh Hotel, February 19, by Washington Camp, No. 305, Sons of Confederate Veterans, final arrangements were made for the successful carrying out of the several Mardi Gras features to be introduced at the ball, including the crowning of the queen of the carnival, Miss Ollie M. James, and the king of the carnival, Major E. W. R. Ewing.

It was also decided by the committee that owing to the fact that during two or three days prior to Ash Wednesday there will be a scarcity of appropriate costumes in the city, it will not be required that the guests attend in character dress. The various features in connection with the Mardi Gras celebration will be introduced and many will attend in costume, although the wearing of dress other than the regulation evening attire will be left to the discretion of the guests.

The committee on arrangements for the ball consists of William S. Stamper, chairman; Miss Glimmer Brenizer, Miss Suzanne Chase, Miss Olive Plant, Mrs.
George S. Covington, Miss Fannie Wilson, Major E. W. R. Ewing, J.
Roy Price, W. Everett Brockman, W.
B. Hicks, and T. Stuart Murray.

Chinese minister, will not receive Friday afternoon, as she had planned, owing to the illness of the minister.

John A. Wilson, of Franklin, Pa., arrived at the Willard yesterday for a short stay.

Senator-elect F. B. Kellogg and Mrs.
Kellogg, of St. Paul, Minn., have arrived at the Willard for a visit of several weeks.

Delta Fraternity of Georgetown University Law School will be at home ment to Col. and Mrs. Mason Patrick.

dining with them Sunday.

DON'T BE BALD

Here's a Good Way to Stop Loss of Hair and Start New Hair Growth.

If the hair root is absolutely dead, permanent baldness will be your lot, and you must as well cheer up as to become a bald man.

If your hair is falling or thinning out, don't wait another day, but go to O'Donnell's Drug Store and get a bottle of Parisian Sage, the truly efficient hair growing.

Don't say, "It's the same old story; I've heard it before," but try a bottle at your risk. They, as well as good druggists everywhere, guarantee Parisian Sage to grow hair to stop falling hair, to cure dandruff, and stop scalp itch, or money refunded.

Parisian Sage contains just the elements needed to properly invigorate and nourish the hair roots. It's a great favorite with discriminating ladies, because it makes the hair soft, bright, and appear twice as abundant. It is antiseptic, killing the odors that come from excretions of the scalp, and, as every one knows, sage is excellent for the hair.

Parisian Sage is inexpensive and easily obtainable at drug and toilet counters everywhere.—Adv.

BRILLIANT AUDIENCE SOUTHERNERS AT AT BENEFIT MOVIES VALENTINE DANCE

House.

The presentation of the film play, "Joan the Woman," which was given last evening in the ball room of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley's palatial home in Dupont circle for the benefit of Noel House, was attended by one of the most brilliant audiences of the season. The spectators were thrilled by this great photo drama, which pre-

Cocoanut Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two tea-spoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff, and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy, and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last every one in the family for months.—Adv.

HER BRONCHITIS IS RELIEVED IN A SINGLE NIGHT

Altoona Mother Tells of Her Experience with Vick's VapoRub.

Every mother owes it to her family to investigate the Southern remedy—Vick's VapoRub Salve. In the South it is universally used in place of inferior inhalants and medicines for treating all forms of cold troubles—from head or chest colds down to sore throat, bronchitis or incipient pneumonia. In addition, it has a hundred uses in the home as a soothing, cooling salve. Usually croup is relieved in fifteen minutes and most colds over night.

Last January Mrs. A. S. Kennedy, cided by her druggist, Welsh Brothers, to Willard Ballroom Charming-Decorated for Brilliant Affair.

The Southern Society's valentine dance, given last night at the Willard, was attended by a brilliant company.
The dancing took place in the large ball room, which was charmingly decorated, suggestive of St. Valentine's Day.

Before the general dancing began C. C. Calhoun, president of the society, made a happy little speech touching on the legend of St. Valentine; and then, following a grand march, a highly interesting feature which smacked of other days, a tableau of St. Valentine was shown framed in lace paper in the good old-fashioned way. Instead of being represented by a man, St. Valentine was portrayed by Miss Virginia Herford, with two little girls as cupids.

Unable To Be Present.

The President and Mrs. Wilson, honorary members of the society, were unable to attend, but they were represented by their cousins, Col. and Mrs. E. T. Brown, who are visiting at the White House. Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, Miss Edith Benham, Col. W. W. Harris, military aide to the President and Major Williams, also an aide at the White House. The party arrived late, having first attended the dinner given at the White House in honor of the Speaker.

Mrs. Josephus Daniels also arrived late and took her place in the box reserved for the White House party.
Those in the receiving line were Mr.
Calhoun, Gen. W. C. Gorgas, Gen. and Mrs. Frank McIntire, Mrs. Ely Banford Smith, Mrs. R. D. Shepherd and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Woolley.

The favors were crimson balloons for the ladies and hearts for the men.
Among those at the ball were Mrs.
Newton D. Baker, sr., mother of the Secretary of War, and Mrs. Core Johnson, Mrs. Theodore Tiller, Mrs.
Lawrence H. Quinello, Mrs. Casanova Wilson, Miss, Fannie Wilson, Mrs.
William Baggett, Mrs. Eliza B. Mc-edith, Mrs. James McGuire, Miss Lucy Woolley, Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Alice Theobald and many people in official society.

New Members Elected.

The ball was preceded by a short business meeting, at which there was an election of new members, among those admitted being Mrs. J. D. Adams, Ben-
